MORAVIAN WINES

Kolby winery, Pouzdřany

Morava wine region, Mikulov sub-region

The oldest indications of wine growing in Pouzdřany date to 1244, but the vineyards have existed in the region even before that. Kolby winery was founded in Pouzdřany in 1997. The winery is named after a hill overlooking the village in beautiful panorama of Pouzdřany steppe.

Kolby's philosophy is making of high-quality wines with special attributes made from their own grapes. The harvest is done almost entirely by hand while respecting old wine-making traditions from Mikulov region.

Kolby aims to bring well matured wines to their customers. All wines mature in ideal conditions of 17th century wine cellars for at least two years before being brought to market. Kolby wines are known for their soft mineral taste and savoury acidity balanced with just the right amount of residual sugar. All of this is underlined with unmistakable presence of steppe terroir.

Time and time again, the quality of Kolby wines has been proven on prestigious competitions at home as well as abroad.
